

Re davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:02:14 am

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

To: martinstephens@mac.com

Sent: 30/08/04 02:16 pm

Received: 30/08/04 02:16 pm

---

Martin

Thanks for your email. Look forward to hearing about your Davis family.

My mother was born Joan Davies (some confusion seems to have arisen over the spelling) in 1927 in Catshill, Bromsgrove. She was William Henry's daughter, the last of seven children. Her elder sisters were 20 or so years older and I clearly remember their tales of visiting Charles and Elizabeth in Fairfield.

I recall Mum saying that a couple of William's brothers ended up in the US. Her parents were ready to book their passage and join them but changed their minds at the last minute. I was wondering whether you are related to these Davis'?

I think I've managed to attach a photo of my mother and grandfather on her wedding day in 1951 outside Catshill Church.

Regards

Liz

Re: Re davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:13:23 am

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 30/08/04 09:09 pm

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: -

---

On Monday, August 30, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>Martin

>

>Thanks for your email. Look forward to hearing about your Davis >family.

Right, then. I've attached a zip file with four files in it. One is a family tree in PDF format. It is printed on a really big piece of paper so that you can scroll around in your PDF reader. It won't print out. I've also attached a report and a photograph of my grandfather, Arthur Lammas's wedding. Actually there are 2 copies of the picture, one is a small one with the names written on it.

>My mother was born Joan Davies (some confusion seems to have arisen >over the spelling) in 1927 in Catshill, Bromsgrove. She was William >Henry's daughter, the last of seven children. Her elder sisters were >20 or so years older and I clearly remember their tales of visiting >Charles and Elizabeth in Fairfield.

>

>I recall Mum saying that a couple of William's brothers ended up in >the US. Her parents were ready to book their passage and join them but >changed their minds at the last minute. I was wondering whether you >are related to these Davis'?

No, John Davies, my G Grandfather, stayed in Belbroughton, as far as I know.

>I think I've managed to attach a photo of my mother and grandfather on >her wedding day in 1951 outside Catshill Church.

The attachment arrived but I couldn't open it for some reason. I hope that you have better luck with mine!

What sort of computer are you using (if you don't mind me asking)?

Regards

Martin

Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:03:34 am

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 31/08/04 05:24 pm

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 31/08/04 05:24 pm

---

Martin

Finally managed to open your file with Kevin's help.

Your research was fascinating and enjoyed photos. A strong resemblance between John and William.

I just wanted to ask how you found out that Elizabeth Hemus' father William had married an Ann? I had strongly suspected that William was married to Prudence nee Waldron of Belbroughton.

On the 18881 census I found in Fairfield

William Hemus	60	brickmaker
Prudence Hemus	58	nailer
Arthur Edward	9	scholar

In the IGI in FamilySearch, there is an Elizabeth Hemus, christened in Belbroughton on 17th November 1844, parents William and Prudence Hemus.

Regards
Liz

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:11:05 am

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 31/08/04 09:57 pm

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: -

---

On Tuesday, August 31, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>I just wanted to ask how you found out that Elizabeth Hemus' father >William had married an Ann? I had strongly suspected that William was >married to Prudence nee Waldron of Belbroughton.

>

>On the 18881 census I found in Fairfield

>

>William Hemus 60 brickmaker Prudence Hemus 58 nailer Arthur

>Edward 9 scholar

>

>In the IGI in FamilySearch, there is an Elizabeth Hemus, christened in >Belbroughton on 17th November 1844, parents William and Prudence Hemus.

It was a working hypothesis. The only Elizabeth Hemus that I could find in the 1851 census for Worcestershire was aged 6, the daughter of William and Anne. I didn't know Elizabeth's father's name, that was just from the census too.

I like your research a lot better

I have the reference for what I believe to be the marriage of Charles Davies and Elizabeth Hemus on the 13 November 1865 but I haven't ordered the certificate yet.

I also have the reference for Elizabeth Hemus's birth. I'll try to order the certificates next week. That should confirm your theory.

A lot of the dates of birth are from notes that my mother sent me. I'll try to find out the sources that she used.

I use a Mac as well and I am using a program called Reunion to organise my research. It is an excellent program.

Thanks for the information!

Regards

Martin

Wedding cert 2

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:04:50 am

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 01/09/04 04:48 am

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 01/09/04 04:49 am

---

Have also found William and Prudence's wedding certificate. I don't know why I never sent for Elizabeth's birth certificate. I sent off for Charles Davis' birth last week.

I must type up what I've found so far and send it to you. If Elizabeth's mother was Prudence Waldron then she and Charles were second cousins. I can trace the Waldron line back to the 1600's.

Liz

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:08:49 am
From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)
To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 14/09/04 08:53 am
Received: 14/09/04 09:40 am

Stephen

Thanks for your email. I've attached Charles' birth certificate but it's a pretty big document as I'm useless at compressing them.

Hope this link works

http://www.familysearch.org/Eng/Search/frameset\_search.asp

It appears there were two Elizabeth Hemus' born in 1844, one to William and Ann and another to William and Prudence in Belbroughton.

I searched the 1881 census and there is an Elizabeth Hemus, unmarried, living with William and Ann in Alvechurch. I think this is the Elizabeth on your birth certificate.

Charles and Elizabeth Davis (nee Hemus) are living in Belbroughton in 1881 with William and Prudence a couple of dwellings away. I'll try to order this Elizabeth's birth certificate.

As far as Charles goes, his parents were John Davis and Elizabeth nee Fox. Using the IGI, I found they had the following children

John born 1833
Mary Anne 1835
Thomas 1838
Elizabeth 1840
William 1842
Charles 1845

I asked someone to look for the above family on the 1851 census for Belbroughton but they could not find them. However a Mary Ann Davis, 15, was living in the village with her uncle Thomas Fox. I've sent off for his marriage certificate since it will at least have details of Elizabeth Fox's father.

I can find a John Davis born in Belbroughton on the IGI. He was christened there in 1813, to parents James Davis and Hannah nee Waldron. If this is Charles' father, it means that he and Elizabeth were second cousins through their Waldron line.

Will keep in contact if I find anything fruther.

Regards

Liz

On 31/8/04 11:57 PM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Tuesday, August 31, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin > Leighton) wrote:-
>
>> I just wanted to ask how you found out that Elizabeth Hemus' father >> William had married an Ann? I had strongly suspected that William was >> married to Prudence nee Waldron of Belbroughton.
>>
>> On the 18881 census I found in Fairfield
>>
>> William Hemus 60 brickmaker Prudence Hemus 58 nailer Arthur
>> Edward 9 scholar
>>

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:10:22 am

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 16/09/04 07:16 am

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: -

---

On Tuesday, September 14, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>It appears there were two Elizabeth Hemus' born in 1844, one to >William and Ann and another to William and Prudence in Belbroughton.

The thing is, I have checked the birth register index for all of 1844 and the first quarter of 1845 and the only Elizabeth Hemus is the one that I ordered the certificate for. It is likely that she was born outside the narrow range of dates that I have had time to check. I'm out of time now and I can't get to these sites on the rig so I'll just have to gnash my teeth in frustration for a month!

Thanks for the certificate. Keep in touch.

Regards

Martin

Re: Re Davis

Page 2 of 2

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 12:08:49 am

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 14/09/04 08:53 am

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 14/09/04 09:40 am

---

>> In the IGI in FamilySearch, there is an Elizabeth Hemus, christened in >> Belbroughton on 17th November 1844, parents William and Prudence Hemus.

>

> It was a working hypothesis. The only Elizabeth Hemus that I could find > in the 1851 census for Worcestershire was aged 6, the daughter of > William and Anne. I didn't know Elizabeth's father's name, that was just > from the census too.

>

> I like your research a lot better

>

> I have the reference for what I believe to be the marriage of Charles > Davies and Elizabeth Hemus on the 13 November 1865 but I haven't ordered > the certificate yet.

>

> I also have the reference for Elizabeth Hemus's birth. I'll try to order > the certificates next week. That should confirm your theory.

>

> A lot of the dates of birth are from notes that my mother sent me. I'll > try to find out the sources that she used.

>

> I use a Mac as well and I am using a program called Reunion to organise > my research. It is an excellent program.

>

> Thanks for the information!

>

> Regards

>

> Martin

>

Printed: Thursday, September 30, 2004 2:11:46 am

---

---

On Tuesday, September 14, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>As far as Charles goes, his parents were John Davis and Elizabeth nee
>Fox. Using the IGI, I found they had the following children

>

>John born 1833

>Mary Anne 1835

>Thomas 1838

>Elizabeth 1840

>William 1842

>Charles 1845

>

>I asked someone to look for the above family on the 1851 census for >Belbroughton but they could not find them. However a Mary Ann Davis, >15, was living in the village with her uncle Thomas Fox. I've sent >off for his marriage certificate since it will at least have details >of Elizabeth Fox's father.

In the 1851 census I have found the following family living in Lye Forge Road, Stourbridge, Worcestershire (ref: PRO HO107 piece 2035 folio 305):

Name	Rel	Age	Occupation	Born
Benjamin	Davies	Head	51	Flour Dealer	Belbroughton
Lucy	Davies	Wife	46		Stourbridge
John	Davies	Son	22	Labourer	Lye
James	Davies	Nephew	14	Labourer	Belbroughton
Thomas	Davies	Nephew	12	Labourer	Belbroughton
Elizabeth	Davies	Niece	10		Belbroughton
William	Davies	Nephew	8		Belbroughton

This would give them approximate DOBs:

James	1836
Thomas	1838
Elizabeth	1840
William	1842

This seems too close to be a coincidence. I can't find any John Davies age about 18 or Charles Davies age about 6; nor can I find John and Elizabeth despite searching the whole of Worcestershire under both variations of the name.

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:07:40 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 09/30/04 06:31 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 09/30/04 06:31 AM

Martin

Looking at the IGI, Charles and his siblings appear to be Benjamin's great nieces and nephews.

Charles father, John was christened in 1813 in Belbroughton to James Davis and Hannah Waldron.

James was christened in 1787 to James and Francis Davis. James and Francis also had a Benjamin christened in 1801 and James in 1804.

Pretty sure these must be the right guys. As you said, too much of a coincidence.

Still trying to locate an Elizabeth Hemus born to Prudence and William. Unfortunately IGI only gives the christening dates - Elizabeth christened 17 Nov 1844 in Belbroughton. I wonder if she was born somewhere else and they waited to christen her in Belbroughton?

Liz

On 30/9/04 5:39 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Tuesday, September 14, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>
>> As far as Charles goes, his parents were John Davis and Elizabeth nee Fox. >> Using the IGI, I found they had the following children

- >>
- >> John born 1833
- >> Mary Anne 1835
- >> Thomas 1838
- >> Elizabeth 1840
- >> William 1842
- >> Charles 1845

>>
>> I asked someone to look for the above family on the 1851 census for >> Belbroughton but they could not find them. However a Mary Ann Davis, 15, >> was living in the village with her uncle Thomas Fox. I've sent off for his >> marriage certificate since it will at least have details of Elizabeth Fox's >> father.

>
> In the 1851 census I have found the following family living in Lye Forge Road, > Lye, Stourbridge, Worcestershire (ref: PRO HO107 piece 2035 folio 305):

Name	Rel	Age	Occupation	Born
Benjamin	Davies	Head	51	Flour Dealer	Belbroughton
Lucy	Davies	Wife	46		Stourbridge
John	Davies	Son	22	Labourer	Lye
James	Davies	Nephew	14	Labourer	Belbroughton
Thomas	Davies	Nephew	12	Labourer	Belbroughton
Elizabeth	Davies	Niece	10		Belbroughton
William	Davies	Nephew	8		Belbroughton

>
> This would give them approximate DOBs:

>
> James 1836

Re: Re Davis

Page 2 of 2

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:07:40 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 09/30/04 06:31 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 09/30/04 06:31 AM

---

> Thomas 1838
> Elizabeth 1840
> William 1842

>

> This seems too close to be a coincidence. I can't find any John Davies age > about 18 or Charles Davies age about 6; nor can I find John and Elizabeth > despite searching the whole of Worcestershire under both variations of the > name.

>

> Perhaps you could check the IGI to see whether a Benjamin Davis was born to > James and Hannah? The firewall blocks the FamilySearch site here.

>

> All the best,

>

> Martin

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:07:57 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 09/30/04 07:07 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 09/30/04 07:07 AM

Again using IGI -

11 Apr 1831, Kingswinford
John Davis married Elizabeth Fox

Don't know if you're familiar with the area but Lye and Kingswinford are pretty close - same registration district at the time.

Again, is this a coincidence or is there a Belbroughton/Stourbridge connection? Maybe the family moved between the two areas to get work, staying with family as they did so.

Regards
Liz

On 30/9/04 5:39 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Tuesday, September 14, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin > Leighton) wrote:-

>> As far as Charles goes, his parents were John Davis and Elizabeth nee Fox.
>> Using the IGI, I found they had the following children

- >> John born 1833
- >> Mary Anne 1835
- >> Thomas 1838
- >> Elizabeth 1840
- >> William 1842
- >> Charles 1845

>> I asked someone to look for the above family on the 1851 census for >> Belbroughton but they could not find them. However a Mary Ann Davis, 15, >> was living in the village with her uncle Thomas Fox. I've sent off for his >> marriage certificate since it will at least have details of Elizabeth Fox's >> father.

> In the 1851 census I have found the following family living in Lye Forge Road,
> Lye, Stourbridge, Worcestershire (ref: PRO HO107 piece 2035 folio 305):

Name	Rel	Age	Occupation	Born
Benjamin	Davies	Head	51	Flour Dealer	Belbroughton
Lucy	Davies	Wife	46		Stourbridge
John	Davies	Son	22	Labourer	Lye
James	Davies	Nephew	14	Labourer	Belbroughton
Thomas	Davies	Nephew	12	Labourer	Belbroughton
Elizabeth	Davies	Niece	10		Belbroughton
William	Davies	Nephew	8		Belbroughton

> This would give them approximate DOBs:

- > James 1836
- > Thomas 1838
- > Elizabeth 1840
- > William 1842

> This seems too close to be a coincidence. I can't find any John Davies age > about 18 or Charles Davies age about 6; nor can I find John and Elizabeth > despite searching the whole of Worcestershire under both variations of the > name.

Re: Re Davis

Page 2 of 2

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:07:57 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 09/30/04 07:07 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 09/30/04 07:07 AM

---

>

> Perhaps you could check the IGI to see whether a Benjamin Davis was born to > James and Hannah? The firewall blocks the FamilySearch site here.

>

> All the best,

>

> Martin

On Thursday, September 30, 2004, at 08:07AM, Kevin Leighton <kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au> wrote:

>Again using IGI -

>

>11 Apr 1831, Kingswinford

>John Davis married Elizabeth Fox

Thanks for all the IGI information. It has been very helpful.

>Don't know if you're familiar with the area but Lye and Kingswinford are >pretty close - same registration district at the time.

>

>Again, is this a coincidence or is there a Belbroughton/Stourbridge >connection? Maybe the family moved between the two areas to get work, >staying with family as they did so.

Possibly, but in the 1851 case it looks as though the parents left Mary Ann with her uncle in Belbroughton, packed the middle three children off to their greatuncle Benjamin in Stourbridge and then went (looking for work?) somewhere outside the Worcestershire census area taking the young Charles and possibly John with them. Perhaps they were setting themselves up before sending for the rest of the children?

I have found another reference for the birth of an Elizabeth Hemus in West Bromwich in 1842. I've ordered the certificate and I'm keeping my fingers crossed! I'll let you have a copy when I receive it.

Regards

Martin

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:34:26 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 10/01/04 05:22 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 10/01/04 05:22 AM

---

Martin

You don't happen to have the 1851 census for Birmingham?

Just remembered that my grandfather was actually born in Selly Oak, Birmingham. My aunts said that Charles and Elizabeth were living there at the time as Charles was involved in the building of a lot of new houses there. William did the same in Selly Park with his young family in the 1910's.

Just glanced at the 1881 census for Charles Davis again. Noticed that they had some Hemus' living with them. Samuel Hemus 24, matches Samuel Hemus christened in 1857 to William and Prudence. Possibly Elizabeth's brother.

I'm starting to wonder whether we'll ever find Elizabeth Hemus' birth certificate. I've experienced the same game with my dad's grandfather. I've been told that even though registration was introduced in 1837, they didn't really crack down on it until 1875. Apparently a lot of births in the city slipped through the net.

Regards
liz

On 1/10/04 6:36 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

>
> On Thursday, September 30, 2004, at 08:07AM, Kevin Leighton
> <kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au> wrote:
>
>> Again using IGI -
>>
>> 11 Apr 1831, Kingswinford
>> John Davis married Elizabeth Fox
>
> Thanks for all the IGI information. It has been very helpful.
>
>> Don't know if you're familiar with the area but Lye and Kingswinford are >> pretty close - same registration district at the time.
>>
>> Again, is this a coincidence or is there a Belbroughton/Stourbridge >> connection? Maybe the family moved between the two areas to get work, >> staying with family as they did so.
>
> Possibly, but in the 1851 case it looks as though the parents left Mary Ann > with her uncle in Belbroughton, packed the middle three children off to their > greatuncle Benjamin in Stourbridge and then went (looking for work?) somewhere > outside the Worcestershire census area taking the young Charles and possibly > John with them. Perhaps they were setting themselves up before sending for the > rest of the children?
>
> I have found another reference for the birth of an Elizabeth Hemus in West > Bromwich in 1842. I've ordered the certificate and I'm keeping my fingers > crossed! I'll let you have a copy when I receive it.
>
> Regards
>
> Martin

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:13:34 AM

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 10/03/04 03:33 AM

To: kevinaleighon@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: 10/03/04 03:33 AM

---

On Thursday, September 30, 2004, at 07:31AM, Kevin Leighton <kevinaleighon@optusnet.com.au> wrote:

>James was christened in 1787 to James and Francis Davis. James and >Francis also had a Benjamin christened in 1801 and James in 1804.

I would infer from this that the first James died young and the line descends though the James born in 1804. What do you think?

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:10:19 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 10/03/04 06:48 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 10/03/04 06:48 AM

---

Martin

Sorry made a typing error. The 1804 birth was John not James.

Kids home for two weeks holiday and doing my head in!

Liz

On 3/10/04 6:33 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Thursday, September 30, 2004, at 07:31AM, Kevin Leighton

> <kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au> wrote:

>

>> James was christened in 1787 to James and Francis Davis. James and

>> Francis also had a Benjamin christened in 1801 and James in 1804.

>

> I would infer from this that the first James died young and the line > descends though the James born in 1804. What do you think?

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:14:08 AM

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 10/05/04 12:27 AM

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: 10/05/04 12:27 AM

---

On Friday, October 01, 2004, at 06:22AM, Kevin Leighton <kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au> wrote:

>You don't happen to have the 1851 census for Birmingham?

No, I've only got Worcestershire I'm afraid.

>I'm starting to wonder whether we'll ever find Elizabeth Hemus' birth >certificate. I've experienced the same game with my dad's grandfather.
>I've been told that even though registration was introduced in 1837, >they didn't really crack down on it until 1875. Apparently a lot of >births in the city slipped through the net.

Well, this is my last throw of the dice. Waiting 2 years to christen someone doesn't seem too unreasonable. I've asked my sister to email me as soon as she gets the certificate so we don't have too long to wait!

Regards

Martin

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:16:39 AM

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 11/03/04 04:33 PM

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: -

---

On Friday, October 1, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>I'm starting to wonder whether we'll ever find Elizabeth Hemus' birth >certificate. I've experienced the same game with my dad's >grandfather. I've been told that even though registration was >introduced in 1837, they didn't really crack down on it until 1875.
>Apparently a lot of births in the city slipped through the net.

Well, the 1842 birth certificate came through, but it doesn't match. The father was a William Hemus, Cordwainer and the mother was Bridget Maria Hemus nee Patrick.

The GRO references for the two births that are not our Elizabeth are:-

December 1842 W. Bromwich v18 p506
December 1844 Bromsgrove v16 p???

Those are the only 2 Elizabeth Hemus births registered between Jan 1st 1842 and December 31st 1844.

According to my mother, Elizabeth Hemus birth was recorded as November 3rd 1844 in someone's family bible. When I get hold of a copy I'll send it to you.

Hope that you are keeping well.

Regards

Martin

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:17:16 AM

From: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Sent: 12/11/04 05:24 AM

To: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Received: -

---

On Thursday, September 30, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton) wrote:-

>Still trying to locate an Elizabeth Hemus born to Prudence and William.

I think that I have found the burials of Prudence and William, both in the Holy Trinity Church, Belbroughton. A Prudence Hemus age 65 was buried on the 16 May 1889. A William Hemus age 64 was buried on the 15 Feb 1886.

Hope that helps,

Martin

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:11:16 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 12/12/04 04:34 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 12/12/04 04:34 AM

---

Martin

Sorry I haven't been in contact for a while. I've been pretty busy with work - a Japanese friend and I are setting up an agency for students coming to study in North Sydney.

I recently joined ancestry.com and can access the 1871, 1891 and 1901 censuses. The 1851 census is not yet complete. In 1871 the Hemus family and Davis's were living a couple of doors away from each other. I've had no luck in locating any more info on Elizabeth Hemus' birth.

Thanks for everything you've sent - I'll let you know if anything interesting comes up.

Have a great Christmas.

liz

On 11/12/04 9:24 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Thursday, September 30, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin > Leighton) wrote:-
>
>> Still trying to locate an Elizabeth Hemus born to Prudence and William.
>
> I think that I have found the burials of Prudence and William, both in > the Holy Trinity Church, Belbroughton. A Prudence Hemus age 65 was > buried on the 16 May 1889. A William Hemus age 64 was buried on the 15
> Feb 1886.
>
> Hope that helps,
>
> Martin
>

Re: Re Davis

Page 1 of 1

Printed: Sunday, December 19, 2004 11:12:03 AM

From: kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin Leighton)

Sent: 12/12/04 04:53 AM

To: martinstephens@mac.com (Martin Stephens)

Received: 12/12/04 04:53 AM

---

Just re-checked ancestry.com for Elizabeth and remembered that they often ended up with misspelt surnames.

In the December quarter of 1844 a birth was registered in Bromsgrove for and Elizabeth Hemes - will send off for certificate.

Regards
liz

On 11/12/04 9:24 AM, "Martin Stephens" <martinstephens@mac.com> wrote:

> On Thursday, September 30, 2004, kevinaleighton@optusnet.com.au (Kevin > Leighton) wrote:-
>
>> Still trying to locate an Elizabeth Hemus born to Prudence and William.
>
> I think that I have found the burials of Prudence and William, both in > the Holy Trinity Church, Belbroughton. A Prudence Hemus age 65 was > buried on the 16 May 1889. A William Hemus age 64 was buried on the 15
> Feb 1886.
>
> Hope that helps,
>
> Martin
>